

ESL PROGRAMS ADMISSION CHECKLIST

Congratulations! You've made an important decision to earn your Master's Degree. The steps outlined below will help you to complete Silicon Valley University's graduate programs admission process.

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSIONS: Complete the online form at Silicon Valley University website or by clicking the link <https://portal.siliconvalley.edu/OnlineApp#/form/info>. If you have previously applied, please contact your admissions advisor or email amaladam@siliconvalley.online

FINANCIAL SUPPORT DOCUMENTS: All international students must provide an original or notarized bank statement/balance certificate issued within the last six months. If the document is not in the student's name, they must also provide an Affidavit of Support (AOS) or a letter from their sponsor. Sources of support must be dependable sources. The University is unable to assume financial responsibility for its students, and there is no federal student aid available for international students. Therefore, it is the responsibility of the student to meet all expenses incurred while in the U.S.

Degree Level	Tuition	Living	Total
UNDERGRADUATE	$5,940	$7000	$12,940

IMMIGRATION DOCUMENTS: All international students must provide an original or notarized bank statement/balance certificate issued within the last six months. All applicants are required to submit the copy of a valid passport. Applicants applying within the U.S. also need to provide a copy of visa and I-94.

Admitted students receive notification of their acceptance from the International Student Office and generally take one to three weeks from the date the application is received. Applications received from within the U.S. may be processed within 24 to 48 hours. Acceptance packages will include the acceptance letter, form I-20, orientation information and other information of value and will be mailed via UPS. Students interested in having their acceptance package sent by expedited means should contact the University with their payment information. The cost for expediting documents can be found in the catalog addendum. With admission notification, proper documentation, and payment of Student and Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVP) fees, students can apply for their F-1 visa at the nearest U.S.

embassy or consulate in their home country using the signed admission letter and an I-20 issued from Silicon Valley University to support their visa request. Due to SEVP regulations, student's home country address, city of citizenship, and city of birth must be recorded before a student visa may be issued. The U.S. consulate issues an F-1 visa, which must be attached to the applicant's passport.

Accepted students are required to report to the University no more than 30 days prior and no less than one week prior to the beginning of the first term of attendance. During this time, they receive advising, orientation, and complete the course registration process. All international students must be enrolled fulltime on-campus study each term
